Feedback and Complaints Summary

1. Purpose

This procedure provides guidance to persons who wish to provide feedback, raise an issue or concern, or make a complaint about us, regarding our services.

This procedure is intended to ensure that we handle complaints fairly, efficiently and effectively to the satisfactory resolution within a reasonable timeframe and that appropriate actions are taken to improve our services where required.

This procedure should be read in conjunction with our Feedback and Complaints Management Policy, which provides information about the key principles and concepts underpinning our Complaints Management System.

2. Who can make a complaint

Any of Beloved Care Services Pty Ltd's clients as well as their families, carers, representatives and advocates, as well as statutory bodies, government agencies, stakeholders, Workers or any other person, may make a complaint to or about Beloved Care Services Pty Ltd about its supports, services, practitioners, employees, contractors, volunteers and other Workers.

A complaint may be made on an anonymous basis.

3. Rights to access advocates

You may seek support from family, a friend or an independent advocate in making a complaint. If you require an advocate or representative, please let us know and Beloved Care Services Pty Ltd would be pleased to cooperate with, and facilitate arrangements for, advocates (including independent advocates) and other representatives.

4. How to make a complaint

Our culture provides for a safe environment for people to speak up so we can respond appropriately, and acknowledge when our services have not met expectations or applicable standards.

You should feel confident to make a complaint or provide negative feedback without fear of adverse consequences, retribution or loss of service as a result of making a complaint to us, or with the NDIS Commission, about our services and supports. Complaints are important — they can help us to understand what is important to you and improve the quality of services we provide, so your complaint can help other people too.
